

2018 Women in STEM Conference Speakers

Speaker	Workshop
Ruth M. Law – Hydrologist for the WY-MT United States Geological Survey, Water Science Center	Ice Cream Floats and Groundwater: What do they have in common?
Bobbie Wells – Civil Engineer for the Department of the Interior, Assistant Secretary of Indian Affairs Division of Energy and Mineral Development	Wind Power Challenge
Sabrina Hamner/Mike Dingle Davis – Petroleum Engineer/Petroleum Geologist, for the Wyoming Oil and Gas Conservation Commission in Casper	Energy, Making our Lives Easier
Brenda J. Majdic – Actuary – Rael & Letson Riverton	Math is More Than “Just for Fun”
Dr. Natalya “Natalie” O’Regan – Veterinarian – G Bar G Veterinary Service	From Scalpels to Microscopes
Jessica Beecham/Teal Cufaude/Linnea Sailor – North Riverton/West Rawlins/East Rawlins Senior Game Wardens	Wyoming Game Warden – Mule Deer Trapping, Radio Telemetry, and Field Forensics
Michelle Fenn – Mechanical Design Engineer - Plenty	The Farm of the Future
Dawn Borwegen/Celle Schwope/Diana Christensen – Wyoming Dept of Agriculture Consumer Health Services Division	Do you have the GUTS for what it takes to be Health Inspector??
Caitlin Heryford – Petroleum Engineer – Bureau of Land Management	Learn About the Wonderful World of Oil and Gas Production!
Reinette Redbird Tendore/Angela DeWolf King – Native American Program Advisor-Dean of Students/Assistant Director for Admissions - University of Wyoming	Pathways to Higher Education; an overview of Admissions and Support Services at the University of Wyoming
Colleen J. Nelson – Nelson Architects	WOMEN IN ARCHITECTURE – The Toughest Job You’ll Ever LOVE!