

Libby Littler
Clinical Education Specialist
SageWest Health Care
Riverton, Wyoming

Biography: Libby Littler manages all clinical education in the hospital at both the Riverton and Lander campuses. She has been a nurse for 20 years, primarily in critical care services. Libby's experience has included providing critical care services (ICU and Emergency Department) in large cities at a level 1 trauma center to overseeing critical care services at rural community hospitals. Additionally, she has worked as a cardiac catheterization nurse and a flight nurse transporting patients via air ambulance. Libby has a national certification in critical care nursing and teaches a number of certification classes. She has been a nursing director for ICU, ER and Medical Surgical departments.

Workshop: Explore the Various Career Option in Health Care - Libby's session will include various career options in healthcare, hands-on calculations with mixing the correct and safe patient medications, hands-on simulations on how technology and equipment is used on a daily basis with hospital patient care, general first aid treatment, and providing Stop the Bleed life-saving techniques.